J-Tech Corporation Ltd

J-Tech Corporation Ltd is presenting its HOMADE range of household items, which includes alarm clocks, timers, speakers and music boxes, all of which capture the innate sense of Hong Kong playfulness in their styling. The company aims to combine a spirit of fun and a sense of humour with functionality in designing its HOMADE items, while taking care to produce quality items that have all the operational features that consumers require. The fundamental design concept is that using these everyday items should be fun without compromising either functionality or quality, injecting a sense of joy into everyday items found in the home.
